

ANNUAL MEETING
Enamels Guild/North East
April 30, 2006
Newark Museum

The annual meeting was called to order by president Sandra Kravitz at 3:28 PM.

Minutes - The minutes of the April 10, 2005 meeting were moved and accepted.

Treasurer's Report - Jane Hammel Lampkin presented the proposed budget for 2006. She reported that our assets were $13,083.70 and a Marilyn Druin Scholarship Fund balance of $3672.77. Mel Druin will add another $1500.00 to increase the Scholarship Fund. The budget was moved and accepted unanimously.

Membership - Diane Wilverding reported that we had three scholarship students at the conference/workshops: - Maki Shimizu, Sonia Mercedes Cabrera, and Ophelia Webber. Our membership is at 76 with a new member, Gerry Gelber, who attended the conference.

Diane commented on the beauty of the Instant Gallery and complimented Sheila Beatty on her efforts. She also told us about the most recent group project - Riches of the Rainforest - and that when completed it is planned to be donated to the Children's Specialized Hospital, Mountainside, NJ.

Elections - Alan Kravitz, standing in for chair person Sharrie Woodring, presented the slate of people for the Board of Directors: for re-election - - Isabella Corwin, Lois Grebe, June Jasen, Sandra Kravitz, Jane Hammel Lampkin, Louis Rodrigues and Diane Wilverding - -and for a new position - Kim Geiser. The slate was unanimously accepted.

Old Business - The most recent group project, "Rhapsody in Blue/Orange" is still waiting for more 3" squares. When completed you should send them to Lois Grebe, 9 Woodside Circle, Yarmouth Port MA 02675 by September 1, 2006.

Marian Slepian reported that the "To Everything There Is A Season" project was finally been sent to Sloan Kettering Cancer Care Center in NYC about three weeks ago. We will be informed when a reception is scheduled.

New Business - Lois Grebe reiterated that the new web site (enamelguildnortheast.org) is up and running and it is everyone's responsibility to help add features and articles to keep it up to date and interesting.

Leni Fuhrman requested articles for the Newsletter. It is as good as YOUR input. The newsletter is a joint effort and not the property of a few people. So please contribute your ideas and articles.

Karen Cohen said that she had a request for a commission of a 1" medal in 18K gold. If any one was interested in it, she would be happy to give the person the information. (It is now on the web-site)

The meeting was adjourned at 3:48 PM.

Sincerely,

Lois Grebe, Secretary
